Thanksgiving Break Housing

If you need to speak with a staff member from noon, November 22\textsuperscript{nd} to noon, on November 26\textsuperscript{th}, please reference the number below according to the area where you live.

Chancellors, Aspenson Mogensen, and Oak Ridge.................................................................715-225-7493
Putnam, Thomas, and Haymarket.........................................................................................715-225-7494
Priory, Americas Best Value Inn, and Clarion.....................................................................715-271-8492
Murray, Towers North, and Horan.......................................................................................715-225-7497
Bridgman, Governors, and Sutherland..................................................................................715-225-7495
Hall Director On-Duty........................................................................................................715-210-0070

Have our plans changed and you need to register for break housing?

- If you originally did not plan to stay anytime from noon, November 22\textsuperscript{nd} to noon, on November 26\textsuperscript{th} and thus you did not register for break. However, your plans have changed so now you need to register see below.
  - My Housing Portal, My Bookings, Break Housing
  - Once you register, please allow up to 1 hour for your door access to be activated.